A Lions Club project for the community we serve

LIFE LONG LIONS

Congratulations to some of our older and long serving members of the Eugowra Lions Club who on Sunday 28th June were awarded LIFE MEMBERSHIP to the Eugowra Lions Club. Ron Harpley, Tom Gransden, Dudley Weekes, Keith Dixon and Ian Tulloch were all presented and congratulated on their many years of voluntary work for the Eugowra Lions Club and the community of Eugowra.

During the annual Change Over Luncheon, President Neil Whalan presented the gentlemen with their certificates and the crowd applauded loudly to thank these men in appreciation. Ron Harpley and Keith Dixon were original members from the Eugowra Lions Charter, 35 years ago. Also present today was past President; Robert Ellis.

The club started in 1979 with Keith Dixon President, Robert Ellis Secretary, and Lyle Hughes Treasurer and 9 other members. The 5th July 1980 was the night for the clubs first official dinner at the Golf Club with 246 members and guest from many district Lions Clubs. The Eugowra Lions Club continues to prosper and do good for the community and beyond under the guidance of Neil Whalan, Peter Heath and the committee members.

from the editor

And it's hello from me again. Another month rolls around, this time we stretched out the issue to be able to include the news of the 35 year anniversary of the Lions Club in Eugowra.

Congratulations to our older generation of gentlemen who were awarded Life Membership to the Eugowra Lions; Keith Dixon, Ron Harpley, Tom Gransden, Dudley Weekes and Ian Tulloch. It was touching moment to applaud these men for their many years of Lions volunteering in the community.

Slim Dusty made the 'Pub with No Beer' famous, but I wonder if he could sing about a Town with no Pub. If it wasn't sad enough of the Fat Lamb burning to a crisp we now have dry argument around at the Central at the moment.

Hopefully the Central will be able to turn on its taps soon. Pubs in small towns such as Eugowra are very much central (pardon the pun) to the social interaction of the community.

Fingers crossed for local teacher Cath Adams who will be appearing on The Voice these coming weeks. Well done Cath ~ your school and town are very proud of you.

Now that the winter solstice is over, its all up hill from now on heading back up the slope to summer. In the mean time, keep warm and keep happy.

Until then,

Sarah

PS I put in a holiday page for the kidlets to keep them busy for 5 mins. Hope they like it.

Did you know colouring in is not just a meaningless past time, its great for eye hand coordination, knowledge of colours and texture, planning and imagination. Enjoy!

Time for a laugh

Catholic Dog

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, 'Father, my dog is dead. Could ya' be saying' a mass for the poor creature?'

Father Patrick replied, 'I'm afraid not; we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there are some Baptists down the lane, and there's no tellin' what they believe. Maybe they'll do something for the creature.'

Muldoon said, 'I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think $5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?'

Father Patrick exclaimed, 'Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why didn't ya tell me the dog was Catholic?'

PETER HEATH

Lions Invocation.

As we gather here,

We pause to offer up this prayer.

Bless this food that we partake,

And every effort that we make,

To serve mankind in a humble way.

And remember it could be us one day.

Bless our land and homes,

And give us another day.

EUGOWRA LIONS CLUB REPORT 2014/2015

Another busy and productive year for the Eugowra Lions club has passed very quickly. We were pleased to donate funds to a number of charities and our schools. We contributed funds to the Eugowra Community Children's Centre, both local schools and their parent groups, Parkes School special Unit, Children's Cancer Institute, Diabetes Australia and various Lions charities serving children and the disabled. We made contributions to the community totalling $4000.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

The annual Eugowra Lions Seniors Day function was again a great success. Over ninety locals and visitors enjoyed the opportunity to catch up and share an enjoyable day. We thank the local business houses for their generous donations of raffle prizes. We also appreciate the entertainment proved by community members and students from the local schools. This day was funded by the Cabonne Council and Gundmain Feedlot. Our thanks also go to Bev Slaven for her organisation of the day and the Bowling club for the use of their premises.

Hosting a BBQ for the Parks School Special Unit in the Memorial Park.

Holding the Christmas Carols with carols from the school children and the Eugowra choir, the arrival of Santa Claus with presents for all the children and a Free BBQ. Our thanks must go to Jeanine Gibby for all her work in organising this night.

The Eugowra News continues to be our major project. Lions members make sure the News gets to and from the printers and members meet each month to fold the News and make sure it gets to the Post Office for distribution and mail out. We value the enormous amount of voluntary time that our Editor Sarah de Lange puts into the News and the support provided by committee members and regular contributors.

Fund raising projects have included our traditional Eugowra show gate keeping duties, wood raffles, car show, car boot sale and BBQ at various functions.

ANNUAL CHANGE OVER LUNCHEON

During the Change Over Luncheon donations were made to the Eugowra Public School, Eugowra Parents and Citizens, St Joseph's Primary School and St Josephs Parents and Friends and also to the Eugowra Preschool.

In their acceptance of the donations the schools thanked the Lions and community for the donations which help go towards providing quality resources and education for the future of Eugowra.

Lucky Door Prizes were drawn as was a raffle. The winner of the main raffle was Lauren Pengilly.

Love and Truth Through Christ

The term has wound up and everyone is looking forward to a two week holiday break. Unfortunately due to separate days of rain, EMY Athletics and the Eugowra Schools Athletics were both cancelled. Hopefully we can enjoy these in early Term 3.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

On Sunday 14th June, Year 3 students celebrated the special sacrament of their First Eucharist. Congratulations to Sienna Carver, Eve Moore, Kirbie Mongan, Lachlan Haynes and Celeste Gavin took communion for the first time, with Mass celebrated with Fr Laurie and family and friends.

Afterwards they enjoyed supper in the hall.

CONFIRMATION

This Sacrament will be celebrated by Bishop Michael on Sunday 16th August during the 5.00pm Mass. This programme began with the children's enrolment on Sunday 21st June during the 8.30am Liturgy of the Word. Please keep Jordan Moore, Lily Wallace, Jim, Riley, Max Gates and Ty Jones in your prayers as they prepare for this important confirmation of faith.

WIRADJURI CENTRE CONDOBOLIN

In the last week of Term, the whole school enjoyed a very special day at the Wiradjuri Centre in Condobolin with Natasha Stewart and her team. The children experienced Indigenous art making Emu callers, and the skills of boomerang throwing. They enjoyed a camp fire lunch and were immersed in the ways of indigenous life and traditions.

TERM ASSEMBLY

The end of term assembly gave parents and friends an insight into some of the activities the children have been busy with this term.

Firstly the children demonstrated new musical skills and songs with their new Music teacher; Mrs Jane Hammond. Mrs Hammond joins us every 2nd Tuesday and brings many years of experience in music lessons which the children are all enjoying.

The Kinders - Year 3 presented their home built shelters which demonstrated all kinds of homes and shelters that humans from all parts of the world and animals use to live in. The Primary students then displayed their recent art works showing many different techniques used to produce various images. This included the Year 6 Christmas Story Art work.

Finally Mrs Eppelstun announced the Principals Awards for the term. 2 students are chosen by each of the class teachers for a student that has worked particularly hard for the term.

They are as follows;

Jordan Moore, Thomas Brindle, Ashton Gates, Chelsea Colvin, Zane Wren and Alana Haynes.

Congratulations to all our students, they all work hard and are a pleasure to teach. It is wonderful to see them grow and learn each day.

Recently we received an email from our Tennis coach; Helen Magill who described the students as: 'the nicest and most engaging bunch of kids I have taught.'

Next term we will enjoy the postponed Athletics carnivals, and Book Week in August including a visit from author; Katrina Nanestadd.

Until then, keep safe and may God Bless you .

EUGOWRA
PONY CLUB

Alicia D'Ombra

Hello readers from Eugowra Pony Club.

Our riders have been very busy during the last few weeks. We have had Olivia Holland, Sienna Carver, Sienna Ardis, Chelsea Colvin, Noah Colvin, Blair, Macey Greenhalgh and Kirralea compete at Canowindra Gymkhana. Everyone rode fantastically well and had a wonderful time, with quite a few riders having their first go at the dressage test. We are very proud. At our last rally day, we had quite a lot of fun playing games and learning new things on our ponies. I think the children's favourite was the lolly race, where you had to race your pony to the end of the course, dismount and find the lolly that was hidden on the plate in the icing sugar, using only your mouth and with your hands behind your back. This was very funny to watch and left everyone with a white face!

Look out for our next Eugowra Pony Club news, as we will be featuring our new 'Rider Profiles' which will feature our fantastic little riders and some fun facts about them and their ponies!

EPC currently has a fantastic trailer load of wood to raffle, and we would like to thank all those who have purchased tickets already. If you haven't already got your lucky ticket, you can still purchase them at The Lady Bushranger, Head On In, Eugowra Supermarket and Eugowra Quality Meats. Thank you to those local shops who have let us sell our tickets there. The raffle will be drawn at our next rally day, on the 5th July, so good luck everyone!!!

Chelsea and Macey with icing sugar faces!

COUNTRY WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF NSW

EUGOWRA BRANCH

The next meeting of the Eugowra Branch of CWA will be held on Friday 10th July. There is no Guest speaker but we will be discussing upcoming trip to Cowra, our International Day featuring Italy and our resolution to go to Group Conference in October re "The CWA of NSW take a stand against domestic violence" Ring Margaret 68592256 to book for lunch.

Guest speaker in June was Stephaney Cheney who spoke about Centacare's Women's refuge & Homeless Support service in Forbes.

Eugowra Branch presented Stephaney with a cheque and a box of Father Chris Riley's books. Stephaney spoke about the challenging work they face daily. She gave us an insight into the increasing number of women and children and occasionally men from domestic violence. The women's refuge house in Forbes is quite inadequate for the 161 homeless in Forbes. There are also approximately 76 homeless in Parkes, 12 in Peak Hill and 12 in Condobolin, Stephaney told us that many children have never eaten a home cooked meal.

Centacare Forbes can provide (when available)

- short term safe secure accommodation for women and children escaping Domestic or family violence.
- assist you in finding safe, crisis and medium term accommodation.
- provide support and referrals to other services who can assist your needs.
- Assist you in making applications for housing and public rentals.
- Provide support and education for individuals and families experiencing family & domestic violence.
- Help you develop the skills to maintain independent living.
- Provide information and support on issues such as mental health, drug and alcohol, sexual assault, legal matters and violence .
- Assist in maintaining long term accommodation.

You can contact Centacare at 134 Lachlan St Forbes. Phone 6850 1777.

The International day will be held on Monday 3rd August at St Josephs Hall at 10.45am. Our Special Guest will be Sonia Dalla Vecchia, who will tell us about Italy.

All are welcome to attend.

Both schools posters and projects will be on display at the hall for everyone to admire.

Excellent coverage was given to CWA of NSW by the Compass programme on ABC TV.

Our member Noela Lane was congratulated on her handicraft entry that went to State judging , gaining 81 pts.

The Molong Branch will be holding "Hats and High Tea" on 25th July at 10am, contact Frances by 9th if you want to go.

Congratulations to Eugowra's Biggest morning Tea" a great effort. Kylie Godden told us Karen Gilchrist had donated roses to RSL to be planted near Memorial gates.

The Women's' Regional Access Group are holding an Health Information day at Lyndhurst on 15th August, it will be very good day. Let Frances know if you want to go.

Participation Leads To Success

Term 2 has been full on! Students have been very busy in the classroom as well as having many extra-curricular activities to enhance their learning and life experiences.

Following on from the success at Cowra, the choir have performed at the Forbes eisteddfod in two sections winning one section and getting highly commended in the other. The choir are sounding beautiful for such a small number of students and we thank Miss Adams for all her hard work with the choir.

Four students qualified for the Western Region cross country trials, Sanjay Buttle, Ryan Valentine, Jake Greenhalgh and Lauren Cullenward. All students did well at this high level of competition and this year we are excited for Lauren Cullenward who placed first in her age group, qualifying her for State cross country in Sydney. Good luck Lauren!

Alec Maclean attended the Western SSA Primary and Secondary Sand Green Golf Championships at Trundle. Alec received a trophy for the 9 hole Primary Novice Event and won a prize for landing his first shot "Nearest the Pin".

As a conclusion to the library class learning topics, each class enjoyed some very creative and fun activities to conclude the term. The infants class had a Dr Seuss Day based around the famous Dr Seuss books and the Primary class had Harry Potter Day – enjoying a game of 'quidditch', riding broomsticks and tossing balls to score points. Thank you to Miss Auld for all her creative teaching talents.

Students had another visit to the Willawa residents joining in the making of cupcakes with them. This is always an enriching experience for the students and the residents and both parties enjoy these occasions.

The school House Captains arranged recess and lunch time Ping Pong competitions throughout the term, with the championships being held in the last week of Term. Congratulations to the winning team, Haydan, Nina, Chelsea and Adam.

We finished the term with Better Buddies activities including cooking minestrone soup with ingredients growing in the school vegetable garden.

Good Luck to Miss Adams in 'The Voice' – we can't wait to see her on television.

Australia's Biggest

Tea

Once again the community of Eugowra has supported the Cancer Council's Biggest Morning Tea, with an amazing total of $3,800-00 being raised for the research by Cancer Council NSW and resources for cancer patients. Hostess for this year's event was Christine Hay with the guest speaker being Dianne Green, the McGrath Breast Cancer Nurse from Lachlan Health Services.

Bree Kelly and Fiona Markwick, who are Cancer Council NSW representatives from Orange, also spoke at the Biggest Morning Tea event, giving statistics and information relating to cancer patients, treatment in NSW today.

Many thanks to all those people who donated cooking, goods for morning tea, raffle prizes and also to all those people who support the Biggest Morning Tea in so many ways, by financial donations, selling tickets, delivering morning teas etc.

Because of our ageing population we are gradually losing a number of our cooks who have donated baked cakes over the years. If there is anyone out there who would like to be added to the list to make items such as cupcakes, slices please contact Judy on 6859 2218.

Results of the raffles, 100 clubs were displayed on the public notice boards around the town following the Biggest Morning Tea.

'CRAFT ON THE CREEK' INC

Craft on the Creek Inc has had a couple of changes in recent weeks. They have now introduced a new level of membership known as 'social membership' to enable volunteers to work in the Craft Shop one day a month.

Volunteers do not need to put items in the shop to sell; they will just be able to take a turn on the roster by paying a membership fee of $5-00.

New members are always welcome with full membership for 2015/16 being $25-00. This entitles members to sell items or products in the Craft Shop.

The AGM will be held on August 12 with all executive positions becoming vacant.

The shop is currently operating on 'winter hours'

SUPPORT | ENJOY | RELAX

New members & visitors are always welcome!

Members of the Eugowra Evening VIEW Club enjoyed their June Dinner meeting with guest speaker Dianne Gill.

Dianne is the Coordinator of the Rural Adversity Mental Health Program., and on this particular evening her topic focused on Family Violence, also referred to as Domestic Violence.

Domestic violence is when someone who has a close personal relationship with you harms you, controls you or makes you feel afraid. The violence may not always be physical, but can be emotional or psychological and create just as much harm. It is not your fault. It is the abuser who is responsible.

- Family violence can happen to anyone in any neighbourhood or group
- Family violence hurts families, communities and individuals
- Everyone has the right to be safe and not live in fear
- There is help for you to be safe

In family violence the abusive person could be anyone significant to you such as your current or past partner; child; brother or sister; parent; cousin; grandparent; someone who cares for you or someone you are caring for; or perhaps someone you have a kinship or cultural duty towards. Domestic violence, child abuse, parent abuse, and elder abuse are all part of family violence.

Physical harm, rape or sexual abuse, damaging property, harming pets, stalking and threats to injure or kill are criminal offences.

Other forms of family violence that are also damaging include:

- Emotional and psychological abuse
- Social abuse
- Financial abuse
- Threats of violence
- Controlling your spiritual or cultural choices
- Blaming you for not fixing family and community problems

If you or someone you know is experiencing any of these abuses, or if you recognise that you are harming, frightening or controlling someone close to you,

GET HELP IMMEDIATELY.

If someone you know is experiencing family violence listen to them, show them support and help them contact a family violence service.

For help call Lifeline on 13 11 14 or the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault helpline 24 hours a day on 1800 200 526.

Esther Hyde moved a vote of thanks and presented Dianne with a small gift on behalf of members.

President Therese Welsh presented Sister Helen Sullivan with her membership badge.

Much discussion took place about the coming 7th birthday lunch of the Eugowra Evening VIEW Club. The celebration will take the form of a birthday luncheon to be held at the Eugowra Community Bowls and Recreation Club on Sunday July 12 at 12 noon. Guests will be welcome, so if there is anyone out there who would like to go along, and perhaps join the club later on, please phone Andy on 6859 3525 to book in. The theme this year is Black and Bling.

There will be raffles, lucky door prizes, games/ gifts and fun for all.

Members also discussed the resolutions to be voted on at the National VIEW Conference to be held in Wollongong in September, which a number of members will be attending.

~ THE SEASONAL KITCHEN ~

This month I have continued a citrus theme as the oranges are ripe and lovely. I was making a cake to take to work the other day and realised it needed to be Gluten and Lactose Free, this is increasingly a challenge I find. This cake fits the bill perfectly, it is quite tart and was delicious served with some Greek yogurt. You could replace the sugar with Xylitol or coconut sugar and it would be sort of sugar free as well!

Orange, Olive Oil and Polenta Cake

5 large oranges or 7 small oranges, ideally blood oranges
300g/10½ oz sugar
250g/9 oz fine-ground polenta
200g/7 oz ground almonds
1½ tsp baking powder
A pinch of salt
4 eggs, beaten
225ml/8 fl oz extra-virgin olive oil

Place two of the oranges in a deep pan, cover with cold water and simmer for one hour until completely soft. Drain, then transfer to a food processor and blend to a purée.

Preheat the oven to 170C/325F/ Gas 3. Grease and line a 23cm loose-bottomed cake tin.

Scatter a tablespoon of the sugar over the bottom of the tin in an even layer. Using a sharp knife, carefully remove the peel and pith from the remaining oranges, then slice into 1cm-thick rounds, discarding any seeds. Arrange the slices, overlapping, in concentric circles around the base of the cake tin and put aside for later.

Combine the dry ingredients in a large mixing bowl. Beat in the eggs, then pour in the oil and stir in the orange purée, making sure there are no lumps. Pour the batter over the oranges, then sit on a tray and place in the middle of the oven for 75-90 minutes, until a skewer comes out clean. Allow to cool in the tin before inverting on to a plate and serving

*We are gathered here in friendship
 In the comfort of our local club
 To enjoy each others company
 And of course some Chinese grub*

*We will talk of projects past
 And of some that are new
 But mostly we shall hear

This month I chatted to Elaine Jones over a cup of coffee at The Lady Bushranger.

Elaine is part owner of the Lady Bushranger along with Michelle

Cheney who runs the well known and much loved Somerset Lane Clothing. The two shops compliment each other very well.

SD: What is your story Elaine, how did you come be part owner of the Lady Bushranger?

EJ: I grew up in Eugowra in the 1950's, it was a great little carefree, busy town, lots more shops and people. I am the only girl in a family of 14 boys and we had a great childhood.

I've worked in retail all my life; in Eugowra I worked at the Newsagency, Escort Rock Café, the Hospital and the best job was at the telephone exchange over the road.

I moved to Forbes, had a family and about 20 years ago we moved to Richmond to run 2 newsagents. Then it was time to come back to Eugowra and the opportunity came up to invest in The Lady Bushranger in 2004. I purchased it from Heidi Patterson who then only ran it as morning and afternoon teas.

SD: This building is one of the icons of Eugowra, there must be some history in these walls. Has it always been a coffee shop?

EJ: No it has had many different businesses JW Lees - Grocery shop, Iron Mongers, Haberdashery and even a petrol station at some stage. I can remember coming in here in my childhood and buying 2 bobs worth of broken biscuits. What a treat!

SD: Tell me about the business -

EJ: We have a great display of gift items ~ jewellery, nicnacs, soaps, cards, when ever you need that special or last minute gift its great to pop in and you'll be sure to find something just right.

I do most of the cooking with cakes and slices to go with your tea/coffee. Light lunches are available and take-away such as steak sandwiches, pies, hamburgers. The most popular dish in the winter is the curries and summer is quiche and salads.

A lot of the community groups meet here for various activities, the CWA, View Club, EPPA, and the 'older' ladies gather for her birthday parties, farewells and the like. So we supply a warm and cosy spot to enjoy catching up and discussing the issues of Eugowra and the larger community.

On weekends, a lot of visitors come through Eugowra and drop in for lunch or afternoon teas. Its great to have Somerset Lane clothing as a part of the shop, so it's a one stop place for the ladies. (We even provide a 'Bored Husbands' seating outside or send them to the pub!)

SD: What side of the business do you enjoy most?

EJ: Interacting with people, the locals and the visitors to town. Its always great to hear the talk of the town and hear what everyone is up to. I enjoy the cooking, however I am getting a little bit weary.

SD: So your business is up for sale?

EJ: Yes, its time for me to move on, this old girl is getting tired of being on my feet all day. I want to retire and head over to Canowindra to help look after my grandchildren. It would be a great opportunity for a young couple with plenty of energy to put a new lease of life into it, some new ideas and fresh faces. It would be really nice to see some younger people move into the town and take on a business.

SD: Next month we will chat to Michelle and hear her story.

A LITTLE BIT OF HISTORY Elaine Cheney

Some great old photographs from the camera of John Niven local photographer in the early 20th century. A wonderful reminder of what our town used to look like.

The Post Office Hotel with newly built Catholic Church/School and Convent (c1907) in the background. Part of this old building still stands behind the Central Hotel today.

School of Arts in Barrack Street. It is believed the dapper young gentleman is Murray Wolstenholme.

The Club House Hotel, 1922 prior to remodelling. Later known as THE FAT LAMB HOTEL.

My Family

Create a time line of your family.

Get a very long sheet of paper and draw a line across the middle. Start with you and your brothers and sisters at one end and work back to your parents, grand parents.

Put in their birthdays, wedding anniversaries or any other important dates.

Put in photos or drawings of your family above or below the lines.

Binge Drinking and its Effects

The following information is provided to assist you in understanding the effects of alcohol and what to do if you find someone is suffering from alcohol intoxication.

CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM

Alcohol is a drug and there are three main types of drugs that effect the central nervous system - depressants, stimulants and hallucinogens.

Alcohol - ('booze', 'grog') is also know as a depressant and slows down the functions of the central nervous system.

Abuse of alcohol, such as binge drinking or drinking to intoxication, can cause vomiting, unconsciousness and even death.

WHAT IS BINGE DRINKING?

Binge drinking is drinking heavily over a short period of time or drinking continuously over a number of days or weeks.

An individual may not necessarily set out to drink a lot but as they may be unsure of their limits, this can result in drinking too much over a short period of time. This type of drinking can expose you to injury or to unnecessary risks to yourself or others.

DANGERS OF INTOXICATION

When you drink to a state of intoxication, you may put yourself in situations which might be dangerous, embarrassing or which you may later regret. You are more likely to take risks and make bad decisions.

Some people become aggressive after too much alcohol and this leads to violence or violent acts.

TIPS FOR HAVING A SAFE AND GOOD TIME

- ◇ Make sure you have something to eat prior to drinking alcohol
- ◇ Try to drink water or soft drinks between alcoholic drinks
- ◇ Always watch / cover / hold your drink - spiking is a reality
- ◇ Learn to know when you have had enough to drink and say no to peer pressure
- ◇ Make sure you tell your mates where you are and who you are with
- ◇ Look after your mates and never leave an intoxicated or drug affected mate on their own
- ◇ Mixing alcohol and drugs or caffeine drinks can be very dangerous
- ◇ Leave the car at home or make sure you have a designated driver
- ◇ Never get behind the wheel and drive if you have been drinking
- ◇ Never get into a car being driven by someone else who has been drinking
- ◇ Have a PLAN B if you do end up drinking - phone home, phone a friend, get a taxi, sleep over or walk safely home

Thumbs Down!

Not sure whose issue it is - the owner or the council or the insurer, or any other party, but why is the burnt out rotting carcass of the Fat Lamb still sitting there as a horrible eye-sore to the otherwise beautiful little village of Eugowra.

It's a disgrace, it stinks and its about time we were allowed to clean up the site and look at rebuilding.

Thumbs Down!

To all those local people who continue to dump their rubbish and garden refuse on the stock routes around town. Tossers.

Thumbs Up!

To all those volunteers who are planting and maintaining the gardens in the public sections of town. You are to be congratulated.
